Mumbai, October 20, 2014: It's time for the 'Festival of Lights', and an occasion to celebrate the happiness of Diwali with our loved ones. While crackers, sweets and Pooja form an integral part of every Diwali celebration, EsselWorld makes this Diwali more special by taking our near and dear ones for a special Diwali celebration.

With 'Dazzling Diwali Delight Carnival', EsselWorld invites its patrons to join in the magical celebration which is sure to add that extra zing to your Diwali this time. The central theme of the carnival will be carried all through EsselWorld with live Interactions and signature parade all decked up to celebrate the festive seasons – something that is bound to bring a smile to every face!

The celebrations at the Diwali Gala will be spearheaded with a variety of decorations which will include larger than life props and motifs and is sure to charm everyone. Once the patrons arrive at the Diwali celebrations, they will be greeted and welcomed by the Band with Jugglers, Clown and Vertigo Man at the Jetty Gate and Main Gate. To make it an unforgettable experience, various activities have been lined up which are sure to add that extra zing to the celebrations.

Interactive games and Street Acts await the patrons from 1.30pm onwards, while a 'Robotic moving interactive Statue' for patrons to click pictures with will be available from 1pm to 4.30 pm. The celebration also includes the musical extravaganza – Fab 5 vs. Trikal viz. a live musical stage show with the famous EsselWorld mascots.

Diwali being a special time for kids, it will also be well taken care of, with 40 members Grand Magical Parade with a Futuristic Edge enlivening the celebrations for the kids, who will be given away special beads to relive the magical moments over and over again. Not restricting to the fun carnival feel, children and their parents will also be entertained by this Grand Magical Parade.
